

A Day at School

My name is Tom. I am seven years old and I am a student. I go to school every day from Monday to Friday.

School starts at eight o'clock in the morning. I usually ride my bike to school. In the classroom, I sit at my desk and open my book. My teacher, Mrs. Green, is very nice. She teaches us math and English. I like English best.

At ten o'clock, we have recess. I go to the playground with my friends, Sam and Lisa. We like to play soccer and run around. Recess is short, only fifteen minutes.

For lunch, I eat a sandwich and an apple. I drink milk, too. After lunch, we have art class. I like to draw pictures of animals and houses.

School ends at three o'clock. Then, I go home. I always do my homework before I watch TV. School is fun!
